The Brick Clay Studio & Gallery Studio Internship

The Brick Clay Studio and Gallery offers limited Internship Opportunities to motivated and independent individuals looking to increase their knowledge of ceramic studio operation. The primary responsibilities of our interns is to maintain a safe, clean and organized environment for everyone at The Brick. All Interns will be required to commit to a minimum of 6 hours per month performing studio maintenance and clay processing duties. This is an unpaid position, currently scheduled on Wednesday and Saturday mornings with options for additional/alternate time available. The Brick in return, will offer studio time and an opportunity for increased knowledge of wheel and handbuilding. Applicants with some ceramic experience are preferred but not required. Proof of Covid Vaccination is required and masks are optional.
